Jonathan, sorry that I did not get back to you yesterday. The Order suspension has been lifted and GRC is processing Bitwise Orders.

There is one outstanding issue and that has to do with a minor amount of $200.00, which is the outstanding amount relevant to the 911 circuits.

Mike, please make payment for the $200.00 as soon as you can... Also, I believe that Karen Lewis will be making a follow up call to you..

Stephen -

It appears GRC is maintaining its suspension of BitWise's ability to process orders for service to this day, despite my client's good faith payment of $24,000 last week. I thought we had an agreement that if BitWise made good faith payment (which it has), that you would make sure the suspension was lifted and would also refrain from demanding a deposit. We held up our end of this bargain and I know that you will hold up yours, despite what I imagine is some resistance from Mr. Miri. Perhaps, as a lawyer, you can explain to Fred the consequences of the order suspension in light of the existence of an ICA whose terms have not been adhered to by GRC. I know that Fred would like to view the situation as a continuous 13-month relationship, but in reality (and that's all the law cares about), we're dealing with a new ICA that was only recently approved by the ICC; an ICA whose terms are being flaunted by GRC at this very moment; GRC's actions can only be viewed one way -- retaliatory.

Let's get the ordering suspension lifted immediately. If my client cannot process orders by COB today, I will have no option but to contact the ICC first thing in the morning to lodge a complaint.

Thank you. I look forward to your update to this matter later today.

Regards,
Jonathan
